Each book in the series stands alone with no cliff hangers. I was thrilled the day a publisher signed me to a contract for the Whispering Pines Mystery series I write 9 books and counting but a year into that contract, the publisher went belly up but kept selling mine and other books by contracted authors and kept the money.

Irving's first order of the day was to start an online interactive chat room. He covered everything from high school sports to hard news stories. Gail Veal is sent back in a vision to save her own future. All those "loud noises" made during his print career opened the doors for Wells and landed him a "digital online" job with CNN News of Atlanta.

What motivated you to become an indie author? By swapping pen and paper for a keyboard, the writing needs of that medium grew to an insatiable level as more and more quality articles and information was needed to fill the millions of web pages springing up online. Nail biting suspense, theological twisting by paranormal forces, and heart touching characters.
