November 12th Run With Patience. Yes, you build endurance and strength by pushing through.

And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us.

What is needed is eternal perspective and faith in the Lord.

It means not doing too much too soon.

The problem is, your body builds that endurance and strength during rest periods.

It is a long race that requires endurance and preparation. So let us lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light.
