Have a question about this product? I pray the comparison gives him pause.

It gave me a greater appreciation not only of what makes western culture unique. This has also challenged me to pray even more for those who cannot pray for themselves. The achievements of those individuals withered on the vine for lack of cultural nourishment.

This defensive style is established in the first pages of the book and become more grown up listening and reading both of these guys with a cautious mind. It was the Bible, says Mangalwadi, and nothing else, that set free the genius of the West.
