This is disturbed when she falls into an uneasy friendship with Trothan Gilbertson, a strange, other-worldly local nine-year old. She continues her work as a cartographer from home and becomes known to the locals as the map lady. The characters are beautifully drawn, and arguably include the north of Scotland. When she arrives to the small Scottish village, she is pretty much left to her own devices until such time as she befriends Graham in the local bird watching office. Until then the school teacher, Trothan and Graham were her only friends. Open Preview See a Problem? Preview—Call of the Undertow by Linda Cracknell. Big thanks to Mercedes for introducing me to this book through her Moth Box. Remoteness gets to even those who deliberately seek it out, and Maggie is unnerved by the event.
