What does this song mean to you? After twenty years you know your partner very well - use that knowledge for good not evil. Let the other know where you are going. And it's you want an everlasting dream. Unfortunately, this family chose a different course, instead alienating themselves from not only the church, but God as. God gives us the peace and assurance to know that some day, this will happen. Nothing is better than coming home to a partner who is happy and An Everlasting Love to see you. This reminds me of what the Apostle Paul wrote in Philippians 4: Tom Feltenon is too weak of a word for Jesus who defeated both kinds of death!
