He rises from the darkness of the night, and comes forth as the bridegroom comes out of the chamber where he has slept. Of the psalms comprising the collection, according to the enumeration in the Hebrew manuscripts, not quite one half are usually ascribed to. That is, there is a silent but real testimony to the power and glory of their great Author. Therefore will I deliver him - I will save him from trouble and from danger. Even from everlasting to everlasting - From duration stretching backward without limit to duration stretching forward without limit; that is, from eternal ages to eternal ages; or, forever. The sentiment in this verse is, that the man who is truly blessed is a man who does none of these things. In the previous verses he had shown its value in the abstract; he here speaks of his own feelings in regard to it, and shows that he esteems it more than he did the objects most prized and valued among men. The higher and more glorious revelation of himself in his law, Psalm His condition Torrey, in the Biblical Repository, Vol.
