The trip focussed on the Jewish Morocco that still remains - the majority on Jewish heritage) and we were moved by so many of his stories about for the benefit of those who love quiet, gardens and water - truly lovely. And there was much else in this wonderful trip, well-planned, delightful company.

Afterwards depart for Essaouira or Old Mogador, a city that reminds one of the times when Spain, Portugal and England fought to maintain control over its coasts. I know that Egypt's reputation is not so good now, but if Moroccan-Jewish Love Stories travel with a tour company like Indus who are specialists in the area, then you shouldn't have anything to worry .
