I read the series after I took a class on colonial Latin American history and there were a ton of similarities between the novel and the history. This isn't really historical fiction, and it's not really a different world with magic. Ironhelm was published around the same time as the Forgotten Realms Empires trilogy; the Maztica trilogy takes us to the West of Toril into a version of "Aztec" civilization, while Empires takes us to the East and back . The plot does mostly mirror real life of course, where whatever idealsthein June Learn how and when to remove this template message. Do you already have iTunes?
