The castle grounds are home to collections of flowering trees that include a range of cherry tree varieties that make for a relatively long blooming season. I noticed that the flowers of the cherry trees at the lower section of the temple were significantly more developed than those at the upper section. Highschoolandjuniorhighschoolstudent: Yes, this is one of the most visited locations for hanami in Kyoto. Please enter your password Forgotten your password?

Ticketforallthreeattractions: There are beautiful weeping cherry trees in the Reihokan Museum and in front of the Sanboin.
