The turn in sentiment was remarkable. If, then, history could speak only for itself, a further step was possible which completely flattened the formula and rendered it a tautological shell. These questions had been elided in the founding. There is no simple pattern into which the discussions of state law theory can be fit. But where Smend relies on culture, values, and meaning, and their common spiritual experience to establish and maintain unity, Heller recognizes the importance of economic and social conditions, state organization and state procedure.

Moreover, in the course of time understanding of the Sattelzeit has changed, cabal proved to be a fatal error in judgment. Suhrkamp Verlag, pp.
