This book is a who-done-it, set just after the Thirty Years War. Jakob Kuisl, the hangman, must torture he I chose this book because of its being set in Bavaria a part of Germany I have visited and really likebecause of its rather original concept a hangman as detectiveand because of the many glowing reviews it has received. All other options were cut off to . Hewasnotonlyresponsibleforputtingpeopletodeath,andextractinginfor They can give us a backward look at where we came from, and insight into our modern trajectory. And here again, we have something that, had it been so much more, might not have been marketable. Bavaria, near Augsburg, at the end of the brutal Thirty Years' War.
