A very different style of story from those that Cathy Glass has written before but I loved it. The story lacks originality and there is no really twist. This book is about recalled memories.

The dialogue was so weak, everyone using the word 'love'. So I thought this story was ok. Refresh and try. In my opinion you need help and to deal with these things straight away.

A very different style of story from those that Cathy Glass has written. I did not like it. I felt as I was reading a paper for creative writing class, not a professionally published book.
