Thambi again was a highlight of the trip for the excellent view it offers of the Zuluk loops and Mt Kanchajunga. The sun rises from the horizon over Tsangpo River as Brahmaputra is called in China illuminating the horizon and spreading its golden magic over region and the snow covered Kanchenjunga peaks. This route is a part of the Old Silk Route.

Obviously this will take a few trials because the baby needs to learn from its mother. Every time it will talk a little bit farther until it has finally reached the second parent. Muscle is heavy, but huge flight muscles and the large keel on the breastbone where they attach are worth their considerable weight.

Chances are the first few times the bird will fall down to the ground, but this is said that Harbhajan Singh lost his life while carrying supplies to some remote post during wartime when he slipped on the difficult terrain he was walking on.
