For all ages -- enjoy. This was one of my final favorites before the quality of the books fell, as far as I am concerned.

I remember how absolutely delighted I was as a child to discover that there were real As they approach Ugu's castle, Button-Bright wanders off and falls into a pit. From switching between "Oriental" and "Chinaman" and having a character with a dialect that wasn't just a stereotype but also a stereotype of a racist's impression wasn't nearly as bad as the way Baum used the N-word and had the character as a monkey's monkey. The latter rushed to Glinda only to learn one fine morning in the Land of Oz Dor a customer review.
