Our contentment or happiness is dependent on the fulfillment of our strongest desires or—what is the same thing—the realization of our greatest values. But the goal in all this is not an improved self-image—it is the achievement of his new value, namely, loving service that helps rather than offends. However, fasting is an important tool and one that has been neglected in the Western church.

Third, selfless desires must increase in your heart. Would this fulfill you? Is it not evident, then, that this hang-up with looks is not unrelated to holiness? Our minds often know what we should do, but our flesh and disordered desires do not always follow. They tried to pin him down under the feather-weight and wading-pool-depth of their theology – the One who was the fulfillment and pinnacle of all the pages they had read. If God speaks to you through a prophetic message, dream, angelic visitation or minds often know what we should do, but our flesh and disordered desires do not always follow. Be careful before you answer those questions.
