There are three other important points to consider when working with the media. If she can't trust you completely, she won't deal with you, or - worse - will expose you as a liar, and discredit your complaint. Asinnineemployeesor. There are several types of consequences you might be concerned with, and consequences might come from a single policy or action, from repeated actions over time, or from an unrelated series of careless or intentionally harmful policies or actions by the same entity over time. The difference between the two is that libel refers to written statements, and slander to those that are only spoken. Get the basic facts After background, you'll need specifics.
